There will never be a 2nd chance to make the 1st impression.

In this net age, with the increased competition in every walk of life, it has forced an individual to be alert on all fronts. If a degree becomes a prerequisite for a good job then ultimate requisite always ends up in a search for a sound personality. At this juncture, if the need is not catered in time, it is enough to put one's career in doldrums.

Feeling this pulse of the society, way back in 1973, Nagpur's oldest multifarious professional organisation called Oxford Speakers' Academy, came into existence with a commitment to provide the concept of English Speaking, Public Speaking & Personality Development within the reach of a common man. Though many more organizations followed the suit, Oxford Speakers' Academy has come out victorious from the onslaught of competition and today stands like a colossus among its competitors.

Every individual is a unique set of talents, ready to be touched and blossomed. If dynamic personality is the key to the door of success then character is what keeps it open forever. Character is built by habits, habits are the result of actions and actions are inspired by the thoughts. It is these basic thoughts, which are the architect of our personality, is what we groom at Oxford, so that the individual evolves himself / herself as a blessed & blissful rainbow..
